The Sapporo Snow Festival!

The Sapporo Yuki matsuri is a festival held annually in Sapporo, Japan over seven days in February (this year from the 5th to the 11th). It began in 1950 when 6 highschoolers built snow statues in Odori Park, and 5 years later, the Japan Self-Defense Forces joined in, building massive snow and ice sculptures.

Manga of the Month

Pet Shop of Horrors: Tokyo by Akino Maturi

Submitted by Mia!

Volumes: 12

Genres: Drama, Fantasy, Horror, Psychological

Demographic: Josei

Other media: 10 volume prequel, and 4 episode OVA

A smoke-filled alley in Chinatown harbors Count D's Pet Shop. The pets sold here aren't your everyday variety- the Count prides himself on selling Love and Dreams in the form of magical creatures that come with an exclusive contract. But buyers beware- If the contract is broken, the Count cannot be held accountable for whatever may happen. Customers often find that their new pets change their lives more than they expect, fulfilling their dreams, or realizing their nightmares. Each chapter is it's own short story about customers who come to the pet shop seeking change.
